

TOMORROW'S HOPE FOUNDATION PROVIDING NEEDS-BASED TUITION ASSISTANCE

The mission of the Tomorrow's Hope Foundation is to provide tuition assistance for families who want their children to attend a Catholic elementary school, but need financial help to make it possible. The Tomorrow's Hope Foundation solicits donations from individuals and corporations, and allocates that money to families based on financial need. A Tomorrow's Hope Foundation grant either anonymously to the family, or on a direct one-to-one basis with ongoing dialogue between student and donor, subsidizes the tuition needed to attend the school of your choice.

The Tomorrow's Hope Foundation has distributed more than 13 million dollars in aid to over 11,000 qualifying students since its inception. Today, the Tomorrow's Hope Foundation provides almost two million dollars annually that subsidizes tuitions. In some cases, schools and Parishes also have scholarship funds available. Families are encouraged to speak with the Principal at the school of their choice about the options available.

Paying for Catholic Elementary Education: Need-Based Scholarships are Available

The average cost of Diocesan Catholic elementary schools is slightly more than $4,500 per year. For those with the resources to afford the full tuition, the benefits of a Christ-centered education are well worth the investment.

But what about those families who want to send their children to Catholic elementary school, but simply don't have the income to pay the full cost of tuition?

That's where Tomorrow's Hope Foundation can help. The Foundation awarded $1.6 million to nearly 2,000 of the neediest students within the Diocese of Rockville Centre.

Parents seeking tuition assistance for their child can apply for aid through Tomorrow's Hope Foundation.
